Exclusive Distributors for HAKKO Corporation (Japan)

OUR PRINCIPALS

ESD Hand Tools

Bernstein offers a comprehensive range of high-grade ESD hand tools. ESD Pliers and ESD screwdrivers come equipped with dissipative handles. A high-grade dissipative surface covers ESD tweezers and ESD clamping vices, burnt in by 200° degrees. All ESD tools correspond to ESD standard IEC 61340-5-1. Accordingly, the surface resistance of Bernstein ESD devices moves within the ideal area between 10^6 and 10^9 Ohm. This resistance sector guarantees a “weak discharge” in a specified time for assembly and human and prevents any damages at sensitive components.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Our Social responsibility activities focused on Emirati Students kickstarted in 2013. The first of free ESD workshops to Emirati Students started off for a group of 15 students from Bahithat Albadya School. Our target is to reach out to the larger community of students throughout MENA in a phased manner.
